Meet Our New Executive Director Rick Wagner

Ephrata Rec's new Executive Director Rick Wagner is no stranger to community centers. A Penn Manor High School and York College graduate with a major in Sports Management, Rick spent 10 years working with the Reading and Berks YMCAs in Adamstown, Mifflin and Sinking Spring where he ran Member Programs, Sports, Summer Camp and Childcare before becoming the Executive Director of the Lampeter Strasburg Y. Rick spent two-and-a-half years at the LS Y, which he said is similar to the Rec in a lot of ways, before taking over for retiring Jim Summers in January.

Rick lives in Mount Joy and has two children - Sophia, 7, and Caleb, 19, who is currently in the Air Force stationed in Mountain Home, ID. A big Pittsburgh sports fan, Rick considers himself a "homebody" and when not cheering on the Penguins, Steelers or Pirates, spends his time having fun with his family, playing basketball and officiating for both basketball and softball.

Since his arrival at the Rec, Rick observed how active the building often is and how many programs we have. He stated that the Rec has a good community outreach with both members and employees and that we are definitely meeting a community need here.
